Providing Help Today and Hope for Tomorrow

Overview of the Kentucky Bar Foundation

The Kentucky Bar Foundation (the “Foundation”) was formed in 1958 and serves as the charitable arm of Kentucky’s legal community. The Foundation’s daily operations are maintained by its Executive Director and its Program Manager. It is governed by a Board of Directors comprised of representatives from each of Kentucky’s seven Supreme Court Districts, the Kentucky Supreme Court, the Kentucky Court of Appeals, each of Kentucky’s three public law schools, the Kentucky Circuit and District Judges Associations, the Kentucky Bar Association, and the Kentucky IOLTA Fund. For more information about the Foundation, visit www.kybarfoundation.org.

Grant applications should be made for no more than a 12-month budget period, and there is no assurance of funding in subsequent years.

Once submitted and while grant applications are being reviewed and evaluated, applicants and anyone on behalf of an applicant must refrain from lobbying or otherwise attempting to influence members of the Kentucky Bar Foundation board or staff.

The Kentucky Bar Foundation will retain all grant applications for a period of three years, after which they may be destroyed. Applicants understand and agree that, except during the review and evaluation process, their grant applications may be reviewed by other applicants or the public.

The Kentucky Bar Foundation may reject any or all grant applications, award less than the total amount of funds available, or award no funds.

Each applicant shall prohibit discrimination on the basis of race, creed, religion, age, pregnancy, marital status, color, national origin, sex, disability, or status as veteran against: (i) any person applying for employment or employed by the applicant; or (ii) any person seeking participation in, or benefits of, a program supported in whole or part by Kentucky Bar Foundation funds.

Applicants will be notified in writing by April 15, 2024 of the disposition of any completed grant application that was timely submitted by the applicable deadline.

Grant funds are normally distributed by a single payment that is awarded during the Kentucky Bar Foundation's annual luncheon typically held in June, although in certain circumstances funding may be made at other intervals that are acceptable to the grantee and the Kentucky Bar Foundation.
